

London Calling

Demand Planner

- Global Organisation
- 6 month contract - drive to work
- Top hourly rate $$$

The Demand Planner will be working in the Consumer Electronics Sales and Marketing Division and will take part in the liaison and integration with the Logistics department.

Responsibilities:

- Generate stock keeping unit level forecast
- Calculate and implement relevant target safety stocks
- Re-order points and forecast consumption logic
- Responsible for accurate analysis and forecasting on a weekly basis
- Conduct detailed analysis and report regularly on supply chain KPI's including inventory levels and forecast accuracy
- Provide the supply department with forecasts for short and medium term stock requirements
- Responsible for the Production Planning
- Responsible for providing Quality Assurance

Qualifications/Requirements:

- Experience in planning/replenishment/scheduling
- Strong analytical skills
- Excellent organizational ability
- Essential Functions (Responsibilities):
- Generate SKU (stock keeping unit) level forecast
- Calculate and implement relevant target safety stocks
- Re-order points and forecast consumption logic
- Responsible for accurate analysis and forecasting on a weekly basis
- Conduct detailed analysis and report regularly on supply chain KPI's including inventory levels and forecast accuracy
- Provide the supply department with forecasts for short and medium term stock requirements
- Responsible for the Production Planning
- Responsible for providing Quality Assurance

The successful candidate will be required to commence ASAP.

Please email your resume to Samantha Watts at sam@londoncalling.com.au

Contact London Calling now on jobs@londoncalling.com.au or (02) 9357 5116